Five Students Nominated For Junior Court Justices; Three For Representative

Five nominations for junior justice and three for freshman representative were made at yesterday's nomination assembly. David Webster, Carmendale Fernandes, Helen Stevenson, Raymond Lua, and Marge Kluge will vie for the two positions open on the Student Court next Monday. Catherine Gorham, Barbara Retchless, and Emerson Arends were the three students selected to run for the two positions of freshman representative that are open.

'DATE WITH CUPID' WILL BE THEME OF NEWMAN DANCE

"A Date With Cupid," Newman club's pre-Lenten Valentine's Day dance, will be held tonight in Newman Hall.

The last dance before the spring formal, the Valentine's Day dance is the highlight of the Newman club's year, and an unusually large turnout is expected by the group.

Jane Romano, aided by her assistants, has decorated Newman Hall in the traditional red and white. Red and white hearts — dozens of them — have been scattered throughout the hall, illustrating the theme of the dance. Rumor has it that a huge seven-foot heart will be the main display.

Newman club officers, headed by Pat Keating and Patricia Doyle, are planning on turning out in force for "A Date With Cupid."

Restricted to Newman members and members' guests, the dance will offer an added attraction in the form of free refreshments.

SENIOR CLASS WILL NOMINATE

Nominations for senior class officers will take place during orientation today at 12:30 in the Little Theater. Marilyn Wilson, president, urges all seniors to attend — especially if they plan to aid in the class's government.

A council meeting will be held at 12 o'clock preceding the regular meeting. Valentine dance plans will be discussed and reported to the class as well as plans for future speakers for the senior meetings.

Miss Wilson warns senior students that time is fleeing and soon graduation will be here. She urges those men and women who have neglected college activities to participate at least in the little time that is left.

EX-POLICE STUDENT

Patrolman Arthur B. Philpott of San Jose is one of the five California police officers who will begin a four-month course in traffic police administration at Northwestern University Traffic Institute, Evanston, Illinois.

Philpott graduated from State in 1936 at the completion of a two-year course in the Police school.

VALENTINE DANCE BID SALES SOAR AS DATE NEARS

"Bid sales for the Valentine dance Saturday have exceeded even our wildest expectations. Already most seniors have sold their first allotment," says Mary McCluen, chairman of the Valentine ball.

The dressy-sport affair for couples only will take place in the Women's gym from 9 to 1 o'clock. Off-the-record music will be played.

Bids are still on sale for 75 cents and may also be purchased at the door the night of the dance, according to Rae Klasson, publicity chairman.

RHUMBA

Rhumba records will be featured during the evening for the enjoyment of those with Latin American tendencies.

Plans have been completed for the dancing contest which will be the highlight of the evening. Dancing in the contest will be restricted to waltzing and jitterbugging. Admission to the dance will be all that is required for entrance in the contest.

ENTERTAINMENT

Miss McCluen, Laura Lee Zwissig, and Frances Wulff, chairman and co-vice chairmen of the affair, do not choose to disclose the entertainment but maintain that it will be "tops."

Committee heads are Emma Ann Wishart, in charge of entertainment; Rae Klasson, publicity; Grace Villaseñor, bids and finance; Audrey Levick, decorations; and Vivian Dehay, posters.

SPECIALTY ACTS TO BE FEATURED AT SFS-STATE RALLY

Heading the entertainment for the San Francisco State basketball game rally Friday night will be Ken McGill and Barbara Retchless in a specialty comedy song and dance routine of "Daisy."

Former Spartan yell leader Tommy Taylor will be master of ceremonies for the evening, and the Vets' German band will play college songs. Sue Lang will sing "Dark Eyes" dressed in Russian costume, and Betty Lauthan will sing "I'm Beginning To See The Light."

The rally, which will begin at 7 o'clock in the Morris Dailey auditorium, will feature other specialty acts including the Jive Trio: Gloria Ellard, Marijane Call, and Betty Lauthan, introducing the newly-written Spartan Swing song.

A surprise Carmen Miranda act is also on the program. Yell leaders Ken McGill, Virginia Sherwood, and Dolores Dolph will lead songs and yells for the rally and the game.

After the rally the crowd will proceed to the Men's gym for the game.

Margaret Hamma, World Champion Typist Presents Exhibition Today In Morris Dailey

Margaret Hamma, world champion typist, elected business woman of the year by the business and professional women of New York, will present a typing exhibition here today at 10 o'clock in Morris Dailey auditorium.

No general assembly will be called. However, all students who have the 10 o'clock period free are urged to attend. Commerce students in particular should arrange to be there.

In the 1941 typewriting contest, held in Chicago under the auspices of International Commercial Schools, Miss Hamma established the following records: One hour professional world championship event, 149 net (5-stroke) words per minute, and the one hour women's professional championship event at the same speed.

CHAMPIONSHIP

Her first contest was the novice typing event in 1940, which she won with a record of 116 net words per minute for 20 consecutive minutes. Miss Hamma is the first woman in 25 years to hold the world professional championship.

She types 47,000 keystrokes in one hour with only 40 errors — 99.91 per cent perfect. She can also carry on a conversation while typing from unfamiliar copy, and type 12 carbon copies at 150 words per minute with a handkerchief over the keyboard.

DEMONSTRATIONS

Miss Hamma is touring the country demonstrating in war plants and government offices in an effort to bring about more accuracy and speed in the production of paper work necessary to the manufacture of war products. She has demonstrated in over 70 cities to upwards of 60,000 typists since late in 1943.

She predicts new and better typing machines that will make typing easier, and will be faster to operate while producing work of finer quality. She also foresees new speed records in world championship contests with improved machine models.

HAMILTON FIELD DOWNS SPARTANS; CAGERS PLAY RETURN GAME WITH SAN FRANCISCO STATE FRIDAY

By WARREN BRADY

The Hamilton Field Flyers Tuesday night repeated the decision over the Spartan cagers, this time doing it by the score of 57-38. The Flyers had downed the Staters 36-35 earlier in the season. However, they had less difficulty this time with the revamped State quintet.

Leading 26-18 at half time, the service club was never headed. The closest the Spartans came was early in the second half when McCaslin hit two quick ones to bring the score to 28-22. McCaslin, star center on the Spartan club, was high point man with Cox of the Flyers, each garnering 16 points.

Jack Marcipan and Ernie Cartwright each collected six for Sparta, and Charlie Laser got four.

In the preliminary contest, Beta Chi Sigma downed Theta Mu Sigma, 38-16. Beta Chi, winner of the first round of the fraternity league circuit, was led by Jose and Beacock, who got 11 and 10 points respectively. For Theta Mu, Riddle and Dombalian did about all the scoring, the former getting eight while Dombalian tallied six.

Friday night the Spartan varsity engages San Francisco State in the second of their two-game series. The first meeting in San Francisco saw the Gaters down the Spartans in a thrilling two-overtime-period game, 46-45. For thrills and excitement, that contest is considered the game of the season thus far. You can look for

Ex-Stater Escapes Anti-aircraft Bullets Near Philippines

After having been reported missing in action, the subject of memorial services by his squadron, Ensign M. Long returned to his home town of San Jose on leave recently. Ens. Long was recently married to Miss Marjorie Farajian, after a romance that started when the two attended college here.

During a daring attack on Japanese warships near the Philippines, Long's Hellcat fighter was shot down as he finished strafing an enemy battlewagon. Anti-aircraft bullets battered his plane. Long managed to fly the plane back to the U.S. fleet and succeeded in making a water landing near two of our battleships.

Though the plane sank in seven seconds, the ensign managed to scramble out before the waves swept over it. Sighting him, one of the ships spun around, neared him, and lowered a knotted line with which crewmen pulled him aboard.

A regal reception awaited Long on the ship and he was assigned

SMOCK 'N' TAM AND VETS MEET

Presided over by Jack Daniels and Howard Riddle, a joint meeting of Smock 'n Tam, art majors' society, and Mu Delta Phi, the World War II Veterans, was held Tuesday night in the Student Union from 8 to 11 o'clock.

Off-the-record dancing provided the evening's entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Adams, Mrs. Marion Wilkins, and Miss Alice Hansen acted as patron and patronesses for the affair, taking an active part in the recreation.

The veterans provided cake and cokes for refreshments. This was the first joint meeting sponsored by Mu Delta Phi. About 20 members attended the function. Of the 66 veterans on campus, approximately 24 are active members of the group.

New members were given the job of cleaning up after the party as an initiation chore.

to the Admiral's cabin. Meanwhile, Long's squadron was shifted to another location and hearing that his plane had gone down, his squadron placed his name on the memorial observance list.

The former Stater enlisted four years ago.
